EASTER REFLECTION — Pastor Patrick Lanaghan

HE IS RISEN
Welcome to Easter Sunday— the culmination of a very “bitter-sweet” week. Because of the Pandemic, we all needed to celebrate Palm Sunday, all of Holy Week, and even Easter Sunday, sheltered in our homes. It is not what any of us expected or desired. As we were planning these special days here at Timber Ridge, we never imagined that our world would be in the current crisis which is now impacting all aspects of our lives, including our worship of our God.

Easter this year is going to be just as special and spiritually connected as you decide to make it. I strongly encourage you to not let this opportunity to connect with our Savior pass you by. I suggest that you purposely set time aside in this Holy Day to remember and reminisce just what God has done for you. God so loves you that he gave up his only Son to save you.

The early church began its Easter by welcoming the Risen Son by welcoming the rising sun. I have included in this Easter Service bulletin a suggested morning worship that can be easily observed in the home, whether it be with one or multiple persons. Notice I referred to this as “Morning Worship” rather than “Sunrise”. The important thing is that you begin your day with the One who gave the day to you.

There are two Easter Services posted on our church website at: TRPchurch.org. The first is from The Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). The second has been produced here in Lexington at Timber Ridge. Since we were not able to gather this past week, the Timber Ridge service is designed to encompass the whole message of Holy Week. The first (PCUSA) is more celebratory, while the second (TRPC) is far more contemplative.

Whichever, or what order, you chose to watch these recordings is up to you. The important decision is to acknowledge and worship our Risen Savior on this Celebration Day set in His honor.

May all His blessings awaken you to a new and vibrant life, giving thanks; for what we could not do — He did for us all.

Psalm 118:1-2, 14-24

- 1 O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good;
his steadfast love endures forever!
- 2 Let Israel say,
“His steadfast love endures forever.”
- 14 The Lord is my strength and my might;
he has become my salvation.
- 15 There are songs of victory in the tents of the righteous:
“The right hand of the Lord does valiantly;
16 the right hand of the Lord is exalted;
the right hand of the Lord does valiantly.”
- 17 I shall not die, but I shall live,
and recount the deeds of the Lord.
- 18 The Lord has punished me severely,
but he did not give me over to death.
- 19 Open to me the gates of righteousness,
that I may enter through them
and give thanks to the Lord .
- 20 This is the gate of the Lord ;
the righteous shall enter through it.
- 21 I thank you that you have answered me
and have become my salvation.
- 22 The stone that the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone.
- 23 This is the Lord’s doing;
it is marvelous in our eyes.
- 24 This is the day that the Lord has made;
let us rejoice and be glad in it.

NEW REVISED STANDARD VERSION (NRSV)

Gospel John 20:1-18

Early on the first day of the week, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the tomb and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and said to them, “They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him.” Then Peter and the other disciple set out and went toward the tomb. The two were running together, but the other disciple outran Peter and reached the tomb first. He bent down to look in and saw the linen wrappings lying there, but he did not go in. Then Simon Peter came, following him, and went into the tomb. He saw the linen wrappings lying there, and the cloth that had been on Jesus’ head, not lying with the linen wrappings but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple, who reached the tomb first, also went in, and he saw and believed; for as yet they did not understand the scripture, that he must rise from the dead. Then the disciples returned to their homes. But Mary stood weeping outside the tomb. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb; and she saw two angels in white, sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and the other at the feet. They said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping?” She said to them, “They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him.” When she had said this, she turned round and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, “Woman, why are you weeping? For whom are you looking?” Supposing him to be the gardener, she said to him, “Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away.” Jesus said to her, “Mary!” She turned and said to him in Hebrew, “Rabbouni!” (which means Teacher). Jesus said to her, “Do not hold on to me, because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers and say to them, ‘I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.’” Mary Magdalene went and announced to the disciples, “I have seen the Lord”; and she told them that he had said these things to her.
