Rally Day

Mark your calendars for a time
of fun and fellowship at the community building as we kick off our Sunday School year with our annual Rally Day picnic.

THE FALL FESTIVAL

Our The Fall Festival is to be held on October 17, 2020. Because of social distancing restrictions, the Compassion and Fellowship Committee has decided to have only the apple butter and Brunswick Stew sales this year. A time line of events for the festival will be presented at a later date.
Presently, the committee is in need of donations of sugar and monetary donations for supplies. The jars have been purchased. If you would like to make a donation, please see or call Julie Lipscomb. (460-2246).

The deadline for the NEWSLETTER is the 22nd of each month. To be included in the next Sunday's BULLETIN, news items must be sent to Pastor Patrick Lanaghan by Wednesday of each week pastortimberridge@gmail.com

Psalm 133:1-3

- 1 How very good and pleasant it is when kindred live together in unity!
- 2 It is like the precious oil on the head,
running down upon the beard,
on the beard of Aaron,
running down over the collar of his robes.
- 3 It is like the dew of Hermon,
which falls on the mountains of Zion.
For there the LORD ordained his blessing,
life forevermore.

Romans 11:1-2a, 29-32

I ask, then, has God rejected his people? By no means! I myself am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham, a member of the tribe of Benjamin. God has not rejected his people whom he foreknew.

... for the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable. Just as you were once disobedient to God but have now received mercy because of their disobedience, so they have now been disobedient in order that, by the mercy shown to you, they too may now receive mercy. For God has imprisoned all in disobedience so that he may be merciful to all.

Gospel Matthew 15:(10-20) 21-28

Then he called the crowd to him and said to them, "Listen and understand: it is not what goes into the mouth that defiles a person, but it is what comes out of the mouth that defiles." Then the disciples approached and said to him, "Do you know that the Pharisees took offense when they heard what you said?" He answered, "Every plant that my heavenly Father has not planted will be uprooted. Let them alone; they are blind guides of the blind. And if one blind person guides another, both will fall into a pit." 1ut Peter said to him, "Explain this parable to us." 16en he said, "Are you also still without understanding? 17 you not see that whatever goes into the mouth enters the stomach, and goes out into the sewer? 18t what comes out of the mouth proceeds from the heart, and this is what defiles. For out of the heart come evil intentions, murder, adultery, fornication, theft, false witness, slander. These are what defile a person, but to eat with unwashed hands does not defile."

Jesus left that place and went away to the district of Tyre and Sidon. Just then a Canaanite woman from that region came out and started shouting, "Have mercy on me, Lord, Son of David; my daughter is tormented by a demon." But he did not answer her at all. And his disciples came and urged him, saying, "Send her away, for she keeps shouting after us." He answered, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." But she came and knelt before him, saying, "Lord, help me." He answered, "It is not fair to take the children's food and throw it to the dogs." She said, "Yes, Lord, yet even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters' table." Then Jesus answered her, "Woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish." And her daughter was healed instantly.
