THE FALL FESTIVAL

The Fall Festival is to be held on October 17, 2020. Because of social distancing restrictions, the Compassion and Fellowship Committee has decided to have only the apple butter and Brunswick Stew sales this year. A timeline of events for the festival will be presented at a later date and we will be in need of lots of volunteers to help make the apple butter and stew. The jars have been purchased and tentatively, we have set October 11, at 2 pm, as the time to wash the jars.

Anticipating a possible sugar shortage the committee has already purchased the sugar needed for the event. We are now asking for monetary donations to help cover the cost of supplies. If you would like to make a donation, or if you are able to help with any of these activities during the week of October 11 - 17, please contact Julie Lipscomb. (460-2246)

Psalms 105:1-6, 23-26, 45c

- 1 O give thanks to the LORD, call on his name,
make known his deeds among the peoples.
 - 2 Sing to him, sing praises to him;
tell of all his wonderful works.
 - 3 Glory in his holy name;
let the hearts of those who seek the LORD rejoice.
 - 4 Seek the LORD and his strength;
seek his presence continually.
 - 5 Remember the wonderful works he has done,
his miracles, and the judgments he has uttered,
 - 6 O offspring of his servant Abraham,
children of Jacob, his chosen ones.
 - 23 Then Israel came to Egypt;
Jacob lived as an alien in the land of Ham.
 - 24 And the LORD made his people very fruitful,
and made them stronger than their foes,
25 whose hearts he then turned to hate his people,
to deal craftily with his servants.
 - 26 He sent his servant Moses,
and Aaron whom he had chosen.
- 45c Praise the LORD!

Romans 12:9-21

Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honor. Do not lag in zeal, be ardent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints; extend hospitality to strangers.

Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. Live in harmony with one another; do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly; do not claim to be wiser than you are. Do not repay anyone evil for evil, but take thought for what is noble in the sight of all. If it is possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all. Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave room for the wrath of God; for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." No, "if your enemies are hungry, feed them; if they are thirsty, give them something to drink; for by doing this you will heap burning coals on their heads." Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Gospel Matthew 16:21-28

From that time on, Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and undergo great suffering at the hands of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, "God forbid it, Lord! This must never happen to you." But he turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me; for you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things."

Then Jesus told his disciples, "If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it. For what will it profit them if they gain the whole world but forfeit their life? Or what will they give in return for their life?"

"For the Son of Man is to come with his angels in the glory of his Father, and then he will repay everyone for what has been done. Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in his kingdom."
