THE FALL FESTIVAL

The Fall Festival is to be held on October 17, 2020. The jars have been purchased and tentatively, we have set October 11, at 2 pm, as the time to wash the jars.

Anticipating a possible sugar shortage the committee has already purchased the sugar needed for the event. We are now asking for monetary donations to help cover the cost of supplies. If you would like to make a donation, or if you are able to help with any of these activities during the week of October 11 - 17, please contact Julie Lipscomb. (460-2246)

Rally Day

THANK YOU

Thank you to all who helped prepare and to all who came!
Yesterday's festivities of games, dinner and awards was a great way to "Kick-off" our fall school programs.

Psalms 78:1-7

- 1 Give ear, O my people, to my teaching; incline your ears to the words of my mouth.
- 2 I will open my mouth in a parable; I will utter dark sayings from of old,
- 3 things that we have heard and known, that our ancestors have told us.
- 4 We will not hide them from their children; we will tell to the coming generation the glorious deeds of the Lord, and his might, and the wonders that he has done.
- 5 He established a decree in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which he commanded our ancestors to teach to their children;
- 6 that the next generation might know them, the children yet unborn, and rise up and tell them to their children,
- 7 so that they should set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments;

Deuteronomy 6:4-9

Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength. These commandments that I give you today are to be upon your hearts. Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads. Write them on the doorframes of your houses and on your gates.

Mark 10:13-16

People were bringing little children to him in order that he might touch them; and the disciples spoke sternly to them. But when Jesus saw this, he was indignant and said to them, 'Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs. Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it.' And he took them up in his arms, laid his hands on them, and blessed them.

Prayer for Sunday School and For Our Teachers

Lord Jesus, our Savior and Redeemer, You have commanded the Church to bring the children to you.

Therefore, help and support our pastors and leaders as they assist our parents in nurturing the baptismal faith of your little lambs. You alone can preserve them in faith against all the evil influences of this world, yet you have given to us the task, the privilege, and the means to nurture the faith of all our children. You alone can create faith and hope and love in these children, yet you call men and women to teach your Holy Word.

Bless the teachers of our Sunday school. May your Word nourish and sustain all who hear it. Bring all teachers to realize the importance of their work and that you promise to be with them. Remind them that that they, too, are children of God redeemed with your holy, precious blood. Give them the wisdom, understanding, and ability to proclaim to the children the truths of your Bible and the certainty of the salvation you have won for them. May the lives of our teachers so agree with your instruction that they may always be shining examples of Christian virtue among us. Amen.
